NOTES:

- Building Practitioner means:
 - a building surveyor; or
 - a building inspector; or
 - a quantity surveyor; or
 - an engineer engaged in the building industry; or
 - a draftsperson who carries on a business or preparing plans for building work or preparing documentation relating to permits and permit applications; or
 - a builder including a domestic builder; or
 - a person who erects or supervises the erection of prescribed temporary structures; or
 - a person responsible for a building project or any stage of a building project and who belongs to a class of people prescribed to be building practitioners.
but does not include:
 - an architect
 - a person (other than a domestic builder) who does not carry on the business of building;
- Include building practitioners with continuing involvement in the building work.
- Include only building practitioners with no further involvement in the building work.
- The use of the building may also be subject to additional requirements under other legislation such as the Liquor Control Reform Act 1998 and the Dangerous Goods Act 1985.
- If an owner builder there are restrictions on the sale of the building under section 137B of the Building Act 1993. Section 137B prohibits an owner builder from selling the building on which domestic building work has been carried out within 6½ years from the completion of the relevant works unless they have satisfied certain requirements including obtaining compulsory insurance. The Building Commission maintains a current list of domestic building insurance providers.
